RACE TRACK, GRAVESEND, N. Y Sept. 23.-Though the Willow Stakes was the feature of the card the finish in the mile and a furlong handleap was really the event of the afternoon. Ostrich was the favorite in this race, with Hurst Park the second choice. These where Adriutha closed, and there was a The judges gave the verdict to Adriuwith Hurst Park second and Ostrich third. Colonial Girl, who breeze nome an easy winner in her last race at Sheepshead Bay, beating a fine field was not in the money. The Willow was an easy win for Chrysitis, a long Burnt Hills was the favorite, but Odom gave her a most atrocious ride, and she was not inside the money. Santa Catalina, also a long shot, was second, a head in front of Handzarra, the second choice.

The opening event went to Lady Amelia, who was favorite. Most of the smart players backed the Paget two-year-old. Tea Cress, in this race, but she did-not show prominently at any stage. The second race was an easy victory for Juvenaga, who wan breesing by half a dozen lengths. The attendance was light and (rack fast.

Pavorite Won Pirst. Lady Anells, a warm favorite, went to the front at the start, made all the running and won in a drive by half a length from Ancestor, who was second as the way. Ascension was third, two lengths away. Tea Cress, heavily played, was never in the first three.

Another Pavorite First. Juvenaga, the favorite in the second race, got a rinning break and tow-roped the field, winning easily by ten lengths from Hildebrand, who beat Coy Maid a length for the place. Drong and Limerick both showed speed, but quit in the last furiong.

Hot Finish in Third. Ostrict was a strong favorite, with Hurst Park the second choice. The latter had speed to-day and he went right to the front. Ostrich went after him and raced in second piace to the stretch, with Colonial Girl third. There they straightened for home. Adriutha came through on the rail and, closing rapidly, headed the leaders in Gie ast hundred yards, in that hundred yards, however, Hurst Park and Ostrich closed again and there was a terrific drive, resulting in a finish so close that no one could tell who won until the numbers went up. The verdict went to Adriutha, with Hurst Park second and Ostrich third.

Won in a Drive.

THREAT TO DO AWAY WITH THE THREE PLATOONS

SECOND RACE-Juvenaga (3 to First Fruits of Night Auto Trips Found in Deputy Commissioner Lindsley's Demand for Immediate Reform --- May Fine Offenders Fifteen Days' Pay.

The first fruits of The Evening World's exposure of negligence in police patrol were apparent at the trials at Police Headquarters lo-day. Deputy Commissioner Lindsley had sixty-eight policemen before him for (7 to 1) 1, Out of Reach (6 to 1) 2, trial and of these thirty-three were accused of being off post. The Evening World's automobile tours were frequently mentioned.

The contention of The Evening World that patrolling is not being properly done was practically confessed by the Deputy Commissioner He threatened that if the men did not patrol their beats properly and attend to police business they would lose the three-platoon system. He also threatened to raise the penalty for being off post to a fine of from ten to fifteen days' pay unless there is an improvement in conditions.

BAD SHOWING IN OTHER CASES. hair-rulaing drive. The finish was so rid'culously small number in the light of The Evening World's fur tions. Nine policemen were charged with falling to prevent burn charges against policemen who were found in saloons, and three pol wern accused of being found in a brewery when they should have be patrolling their beats.

That official cognizance has been taken of The Evening World's in vestigation was shown when the first policeman accused of talking to a citizen was arraigned. This was Charles Bennett, of the Oak street st The charge was preferrel by Capt. Hodgins. Commissioner Lindsley a

"I nave said that I am going to make you men stop talking on stay on post. The Evening World charges that the police are not on their posts. I have made personal investigation of these charges and consider the fact that there are so many policemen now at the beaches and on a outside details I think that there are probably as many men on boot an there were before. But you've got to stop this conversaton."

FINE FOR THE SHIRKER.

Bennett was fined three days' pay. Patrolman Henry Vantilburg.
